

MOROCCO STUDY ABROAD

المغرب

Program Objective: Partner with a women's cooperative to study the goals and strategies that facilitate the work of successful civil society organizations

Dates: May 8-31, 2017

Locations in Morocco: Marrakesh, Essouaria, Imazighen villages

More Information: Visit the Morocco program page on the USU Study Abroad website or email program leaders Dr. Peg Petrzelka (peggy.petrzelka@usu.edu) and Dr. Rebecca Walton (rebecca.walton@usu.edu)

Estimated Cost: $2,675 plus tuition

Applications are due January 2, 2017

MOROCCO STUDY ABROAD APPLICATION

Applications are due by January 2, 2017.

To apply, please submit 1) this form, 2) your application essay, and 3) a resume/CV of 2 pages or less by email to Professor Peg Petrzelka (peggy.petrzelka@usu.edu) and Professor Rebecca Walton (rebecca.walton@usu.edu).

After receiving your application materials, Professor Petrzelka and Professor Walton will email you to schedule a brief interview about your interest in this study abroad program. Selection of participating students will be based on the interview and your application materials.

For more information about this study abroad program, go to

https://studyabroad.usu.edu/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgram&Program_ID=10743

Feel free to contact Professor Petrzelka or Professor Walton with any questions.

Name

Email

College (e.g., Humanities and Social Science, Caine College of the Arts)

Major (if declared)

Year in School

GPA

Financial Need (Please describe any circumstances/background you feel is relevant for us to know regarding your financial need.)

Requirements (Please describe any special needs or services you will require during the study abroad, such as medical treatments, medications, allergies, dietary restrictions, learning aids, or accessible facilities. If none, please enter none.)

Application Essay

In a separate document, provide the following information in a clear, thoughtfully prepared essay of ~300-500 words:

- Introduce yourself and explain your goals for studying abroad.
- What specific situations from your past (e.g., coursework, job experience, travel, intercultural experience) have helped you prepare to accomplish these goals?
- Why do you want to participate in this study abroad course?